912 Caymus Cabernet Sauvignon - Vintage 1982
 Grace Family Vineyard
 lbsl, crc, owc
 1 double magnum per lot $500-700

913 Caymus Cabernet Sauvignon - Vintage 1976
 Special Selection
 2lbsl, sdc, wc
"Along with the 1978, this is the most concentrated Cabernet Caymus has ever produced. Today their Special Selection style, while still oaky, is less intense and more supple than when it was inaugurated in 1975. 1976, a drought year with extremely low yields, resulted in a black-colored wine, with a big, toasty vanillin, cassis-scented nose, and highly extracted, viscous, thick flavors that coat the mouth. This wine is almost too much of a good thing, but then, so is the 1947 Cheval Blanc and 1947 Petrus. In fact, the texture and concentration of the 1976 Caymus Special Selection has more in common with those two wines than most modern day California Cabernets. Because of its sweetness of fruit and essence of Cabernet style, this wine can be drunk now. It should prove to be a legendary example of California Cabernet that can easily last for another 20 or more years."(98pts)
 Above 2 bottles and 1 magnum per lot $1200-1600

914 Caymus Cabernet Sauvignon - Vintage 1991
 Special Selection
 1tl
"Healthy dark color, wonderful youthful vitality. Rich mocha, chocolate, black cherry and spice flavors, elegant and polished, with softening tannins and dusty, cedary oak adding dimension. Excellent balance."(94pts WS)
 12 bottles per lot $1200-1500

905 Ornellaia - Vintage 1995
 Tenuta dell' Ornellaia
 owc
"Youthful nose lots of t 'n a in the nose, intermixed with cedar, anise and minerals good heat, good spice, good grip and a hint of plummy fruit rock solid vintage. After 1991 through 1994, the 1995 vintage saved Ornellaia, as the owner was upset at all the money he was spending to produce the wines that were being produced, and he considered abandoning the label!"(93pts JK)
 12 bottles per lot $1000-1300

906 12 bottles per lot $1000-1300

- 942 Ermitage - Vintage 2005
Le Meal, M. Chapoutier
owc
"There are 481 cases of the black/purple 2005 Ermitage Le Meal. As always, classic blackberry, asphalt, charcoal, and beef blood notes jump from the glass of this intense wine. Full-bodied, with staggering concentration and a personality not terribly dissimilar from a first-growth Pauillac, but showing no evidence of oak whatsoever (and that is in spite of being aged in 100% new oak casks), this wine needs 10-12 years of bottle age, and should keep for 50-100 years."(96pts)
 Above 6 bottles and 1 magnum per lot $750-1050
- 943 Ermitage - Vintage 2005
Le Pavillon, M. Chapoutier
owc
"...has a dense purple color; the classic acacia flower, graphite-based, smoky creme de cassis nose with a tremendous intensity and a full-bodied power and richness that is awesome. These are monumental wines, and when you think that this wine, much like most of its siblings, is made from yields of 12-18 hectoliters per hectare, the explanation for its concentration and extraordinary expression of terroir is obvious."(98+pts)
 6 bottles per lot $700-1000
- 944 Ermitage - Vintage 2005
L'Ermite, M. Chapoutier
2x6 bottle owc's
"An extraordinarily powerful wine that probably needs 10-15 years in the bottle (last year I thought 20 was probably conservative), this is a 100-year wine and probably best appreciated by our descendants rather than anyone currently over the age of 30. Dense purple to the rim, with notes of crushed rock, charcoal, roasted meats, and enormous quantities of blue and black fruits, this wine is almost painfully rich and thick, with mouthsearing levels of tannin and zesty acidity."(99+pts)
 12 bottles per lot $1800-2600

 Contador, B. Romeo
 2x6 bottle owc's
 "The 2003 Contador (a meager 200 bottles for the American market) was sourced from three tiny parcels ranging in age from 65-80 years. It was fermented in new French barriques, aged for 12 months, and bottled unfiltered and unfiltered. The result is a spectacular wine with a remarkably expressive nose of pain grille, lead pencil, spice box, espresso, black currants, and wild blueberries that roars from the glass. The opulent palate is mouth-coating, thick, and full-flavored with the structure well-concealed by the masses of fruit." (99pts)

The palate was very tasty with its mirabelle, mineral, earth and slate flavors. Pungent, rich and fleshy, this was another great Lafleur. When Jacques said, 'it will be interesting to compare the 2000 and 2001 over time, and no one talks about 2001, 'I knew it just wasn't me. The 2006 Raven Series exhibits that chocolate character that very ripe Grenache can sometimes possess, along with black cherry and black currant notes. Full-bodied and seamlessly constructed, it offers hints of graphite, licorice, smoke, and meat. The chocolate component appears to be vintage specific as I have not noticed it in other SQN Grenache offerings. This beauty, a superb success in a challenging vintage, is another example of how intensive, radical work in the vineyard as well as meticulous attention to detail in both the vineyard and cellar can produce a prodigious wine in a less than stellar year."*(96-100pts)

“Ruby-red. Sauvage aromas of black raspberry, blood orange, purple flowers, licorice and Worcestershire sauce; lifted by a suggestion of grapefruit. Thick, lush and seamless, but given razor sharp precision by penetrating acids. At once creamy and solid yet amazingly bright. Strong violet flavor carries through to the explosively long finish. Ripe tannins are inundated by velvety fruit. This is really amazing juice.” (96pts IWC)

- 1086 Charmes Chambertin - Vintage 1996
Vieilles Vignes, Domaine Bachelet
“This is very 1996 in character with its combination of power and finesse with elegant, almost completely primary pinot fruit and flavors underpinned by slightly edgy tannins and very nice length. This is delicious yet entirely serious as the structure coupled with the acidity and mid-palate density will permit this to age over the medium term. The only nit is a slight vegetal quality to the extremely fresh and vibrant finish. Consistent notes.” (90pts BH)

- 1087 Clos Vougeot - Vintage 1990
Meo Camuzet
“Sweet, candied nose...pine, sasparilla, sugar plums...nutty and creamy as well...soft, round palate - not as open on the palate - very closed and soft...a hint of a finish but surprisingly simple...perhaps the wine needed about two more hours than we gave it.” (92+pts JK)

“Very aromatic with pungent leather and earth notes followed by big, rich, slightly austere flavors and excellent length. Though this is solidly structured, it is not hard and this offers lovely balance and this has retained a certain elegance and freshness to it that is most appealing.” (91pts BH)

“Darkest and tightest wine of the flight...a confectioner's quality to the nose to complement its black fruits...a touch stinky on the finish as well...clearly the most acids and tannins of the bunch - maybe of the week! A brooding wine that needs time to open up and display some of its true personality...cola and perfume come out, and its tight core of fruit gets a little looser...the most wood of this flight, I would guess as well. Ben A. had the most interesting comment about this wine, calling it 'Great Pinot, but not great Burgundy.' Think about that one for a few years!” (94pts JK)

“Explosive, oakier aromas of black cherry, smoke, espresso and licorice; smells like barrels with a heavier toast. Great sweetness in the mouth; dense, silky, oaky and large-scaled. Seems more heavily extracted than the wines vinified in Meo cellar.” (89-92pts IWC)

- 1094 Musigny - Vintage 1993
Vieilles Vignes, Comte de Vogue
“Still remarkably primary with a nose that is the crystalline essence of black cherry pinot sap. Massively structured, thick flavors with dense, ripe tannins that are completely buffered by all the extract. This is flat out great a monument in the making...” (97pts BH)

"Massive aromas of red and black fruits and a fascinating array of spices and violets with austere yet regal soil inflected flavors of incredible density. This is arguably 100% pure extract of pinot yet the textural impact does not come across as syrupy or viscous. There is superb balance to go with the serious nature of this wine and it simply reeks class. Wine simply doesn't get much better."(95pts BH)

"Bigger and more powerful aromas of white flowers and traces of lime and peach with rich, impressively layered flavors of good density yet uncommon elegance and superb length. Quite lively with a slightly sweet, intense and mouthwatering finish. A very fine if not compelling Chevalier."(92pts BH)

*"A touch of pain grill frames very ripe but not exotic fruit that includes pear, peach, orange and apricot as well as acacia blossom and honeysuckle that complements well the rich, fresh and vibrant flavors that also display a touch of gas on the textured, opulent and palate drenching finish. This is a big wine that is very B tard-like in character as there isn't much elegance but it's long on power and size. Buyers would also do well to decant this for 20 to 30 minutes first." - 1110 Chassagne Montrachet - Vintage 2006
La Romanee, P. Pillot

 "A subtly exotic and notably spicy ripe orchard fruit nose that is nuanced by hints of acacia blossom while leading to naturally, full and extract-rich medium-bodied flavors that possess outstanding depth and if the flavor profile is slightly less minerally than that of the Caillerets, there is actually more length here on the palate staining and beautifully balanced finish. A knockout." (92pts BH)
